St. Vitus's

Dance or chorea, is one of the most painful afflictions humanity is called on to endure. That this disease can be cured, however, is proven by the fact that it has been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The tranquilizing effect upon the nerves exercised by this remarkable medicine is witnessed to by thousands who have found healing and strength in its use. It not only cures womanly diseases, but it promotes the health of the whole body. It is a nerve-giving, strength-giving, sleep-inducing medicine. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. It cannot disagree with the weakest or most delicate constitution.

"When our daughter Lizzie had St. Vitus's dance, I happened to get one of your small bottles and read it," writes Henry L. Miller, Esq., of North 7th St., Burlington, Iowa. "Among other things I found that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured patients suffering from the trouble we went out and got a bottle. She was very bad at that time and could hardly talk. When I read about your medicine in that small book I said to myself, with the help of God and that medicine we can cure our daughter. We did so. Four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' cured her and I did not have to take her to the doctor any more. She is well, thank God and the 'Favorite Prescription' for it."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

ESCAPED FROM AN ASYLUM. John Arms rong Chasler, former husband of Amelia Rives, cousin of R. representative William Astor Chasler, and great-grandson of the original John Jacob Astor, who has been confined in Bloomingdale Asylum at White Plains, N. Y., has escaped, and is supposed to be wandering about the country in Westchester county.

Mr. Chasler has been confined in Bloomingdale Asylum for two years. As he was tractable and subservient to the rules of the institution, he has been allowed certain liberty, of which two days ago he took advantage by walking out of the gates. Since that time he has not been seen. As soon as his escape was discovered attendants at the institution started to search for him, but he had left no trace. Mr. Chasler had the free run of the grounds, and could come and go at will, as he was looked-on as a harmless patient.

Mr. Chasler is a millionaire, and had a private room in the institution. Dr. Lyon, the superintendent of the institution, was being made for the missing man, and that he had no doubt that he would be found within twenty-four hours. It was learned that he walked out of the asylum gate at the eastern end of the grounds, and was last seen walking toward Mamoroneck.

Chandler, who was sent to the Bloomingdale Insane Asylum in February, 1897, was well known in this country and Europe as the first husband of the Princess Troubetzkoy, formerly Mrs. Amelia Rives, the authoress. Overcome by anxiety, harassed by business annoyances, to which he was unaccustomed, and disappointed because of his wife's second marriage, Mr. Chandler's health broke down. His grand became so enfeebled that the family decided to place him in the asylum, where he could have absolute quiet. For more than a year previous to the time he entered the asylum Mr. Chandler had been eccentric. His chief delusion seemed to be that he was a sort of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

Mr. Chandler had a somewhat eventful life as a sportsman, and was known as an art patron and club member. He is the son of the late John Winthrop Chandler who died at Rockaway, N. Y., in 1877. His mother was Miss W. A. granddaughter of William B. Astor.

Always greatly interested in art, Mr. Chandler was instrumental in founding a "Paris prize fund" in New York and Boston, by which the winner of the prize was sent to the French capital to study art with an income of $900 a year.

He is by profession a lawyer, and was a member of the law firm of Chandler, Maxwell & Phillips, of New York. He and Amelia Rives were married on June 14, 1888. The couple separated three years later.

Mrs. Chandler obtained a divorce from her husband in February, 1895, because of alleged incompetency of temper.

"JACK THE KISSER" CAUGHT.—Elizabethport N. J., detectives Saturday night captured "Jack, the Kissers," who for some weeks has been terrorizing women and girls at Elizabethport by seizing them and forcibly kissing them. He is Vincent De Rocco, a barber, and several of his victims have identified him. He is 24 years old and married. He is the same person who a year ago was arrested and punished for stealing up behind women on the streets, violently pinching them and then running away.

Justice Mahon, before whom he was arraigned, sentenced him to jail for ninety days, but the prisoner's wife, with her sister, pleaded so hard with the Judge that he changed the sentence to 20 fine and costs, which the women paid.

Used by British Soldiers in Africa. Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Ghalibe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." For sale by all druggists.

In all stages of Nasal Catarrh there should be cleanliness. As experience proves, Ely's Cream Balm is a cleanser, soothes and healer of the diseased membrane. It is not drying nor irritating, and does not produce a scab. Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. Upon being placed into the nostrils it spreads over the membrane and relief is immediate. It is an agreeable cure.

Now is the time when crop and lung troubles prove rapidly fatal. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results is One Minute Cough Cure. It is very pleasant to take and can be relied upon to quickly cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. It will prevent consumption.
